

OCTOBER 2018 | VOLUME 1

STARR KING ECHOES

THOMAS STARR KING MS NEWSLETTER

Yearbook Announcements

WRITTEN BY KARMYNN DE LA PEÑA

COMIC BY AIDEN ZHANG-MASTRAPA

For this newsletter that you are reading right now, you can submit comics in FULL color outlined with sharpie and just art as well as decent jokes

Submit art to be IN the yearbook

You can now pay the pre-order for the 2018-2019 yearbook at the student store for $35

Around the Campus

If you are bored and have nothing to do at lunch, come check out some clubs. Sure you may not want to but just try it. Also if you are into sports you can go to the field or the basketball courts. You can either play or hang out.

Every Wednesday and Friday, leadership plays music and hosts games. Of course you've seen it already but have you participated? No pressure though. I just don't know what to write here.

News

Its time to hear the news. As you know Halloween has passed however we have a fun little comic on the next page that is Halloween themed. The artists name was in the page before this. Day of the dead is November 2 and Drill team will be performing from periods 3-6. Now, here is the calendar for November:

- November 12: No School-Veterans Day Observed
- November 19-23: No School-Thanksgiving Break
- November 28: Magnet Parent meeting in library 5:00-6:00pm
- For people who ride the magnet buses, early pick-up till December 4

Do not forget to submit art to Yearbook and start paying the pre-order sale at the student store for the yearbook.

Tell us your feedback:

<https://goo.gl/forms/VmrwteUMGCOKiWHZZ>

Don't forget to submit jokes and comics to Ms. Rizzo in Rm. 316 or email me at kdelapena0002@myemail.lausd.net

Anyways lets look back in TSK history. Here is a photo of the original newsletter published in Friday, December 2, 1932.

An Active Newspaper for
An Active Student Body

Starr King Echoes

"Truth Conquers All"

OL. VII. NO. 6 THOMAS STARR KING JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES FRIDAY, DEC. 2, 1932

Dramatics Class to Give Xmas Play

Cast Busy Rehearsing

Miss Elsie Thompson's A9 Dramatics class is preparing a Christmas play which is called, "Why the Times Rang." The play is to be given on December 16th, just before Christmas vacation. The characters are as follows: Iger, George Platz; Steen, Roline Higgins; Uncle Bertel, Mil-Sherr; Old Women, Elroy Menth and Edythe Robinson; Priest, on Sherr. ch Women, Emma Levinson Mildred Hanson; Courtier, Tannehill; Beautiful Woman, Beverly Reddick and Cornson; Young Girls, Daisy Wichand Maxine Lipsey; Sage, Hastings; Angels, Jeannette and Inez Crowell.

SCHOOL THRIFT RANKS HIGH

302 Wins Thrift Banner First

Leading in Thrift records for deposits and accounts, A8 Homeroom 302 was the winner of the upper division Thrift Banner for the month of October. B7 Homeroom 156 had the most deposits and new bank accounts for October and received the Thrift Banner for lower division.

The president of upper division committeemen is Dorothy McGinty, and Janet Tansel is committeeman for lower division. Two of the most active Thrift committeemen are Mildred Fallon, of 152, a B7, and Milton DeLugg, of 302, an A8.

The new school savers that opened accounts in October are as follows: Albert Alsop, 302; Robert E. Cook, 206; Dorothy Fuller, 146; Bert Kern, 155; Robert Luth, 3; Harry Vickman, 254; Oscar Navette, 157, opened two new accounts in different banks.

Girls Present Dolls To General Hospital

A happy Thanksgiving spirit will preside at the General Hospital. The girl members of the Honor Society of Starr King brought their favorite dolls of their childhood days, to be given to the convalescent children in the ward. Patsy dolls, rag dolls, and baby dolls were all arranged in their finery. The girls were very enthusiastic and cooperative in this project.

Field Day Coming!

A field day sponsored by the Executive Board will be held Friday, December 9, on the boys' yard. Admission of five cents will be charged, with proceeds to go for the buying of monograms.

Football and hit-pin game will be played.

Holiday Concert Given

On November 23, a Thanksgiving Concert was held fourth and sixth periods in the Auditorium. The program was as follows:

Next was presented a "Gypsy Street Fiddler," Violin Solo, John Montapert; Piano Accordion Solos, "Over the Waves," "Neopolitan Night," Shirley Jarcas; English Skit, "Trees," Vocal Solo, David Robertson; "Blue Hawaiian Waters," Orchestra.

Program Presented For Armistice Day

The Armistice Day Program, sponsored by the Social Studies Class, was opened by Joe Fletcher, of Miss Chalmers' Homeroom 252, with a short talk on the significance of Armistice Day, given Wednesday, November 10, in the Auditorium.

Five Scouts stepped out and two of them blew taps, and then with the scouts leading, the audience gave the Flag Salute.

Field Day Coming!

A field day sponsored by the Executive Board will be held Friday, December 9, on the boys' yard. Admission of five cents will be charged, with proceeds to go for the buying of monograms.

Football and hit-pin game will be played.

Change is the law of life,
And those who look only to the past or present are certain to miss the future.
-John F. Kennedy

